

Data protection declaration

Data protection has always been very important for the WIK GmbH / WIK-Consult GmbH group and is not only a part of our legal obligations, but also an essential factor in customer relations and for the trust you have placed in us.

In connection with all activities of the WIK GmbH / WIK-Consult GmbH group, Rhöndorfer Str. 68, 53604 Bad Honnef (hereinafter WIK), this data protection declaration applies to data processed.

Purpose of data processing

Your details are required to register for and participate in events and to receive information on current WIK publications.

In order to send you the information by e-mail, WIK requires your permission.

Disclosure of personal data to third parties

WIK partly uses external service providers for data processing, who support the implementation of all activities (e.g. the operation of the website). These service providers process data only in accordance with the instructions and under the control of WIK and exclusively for the purposes described in this data protection declaration.

Storage of personal data

WIK stores the data for as long as you wish to receive information and invitations to events.

Right of information, correction, deletion, withdrawal

You can request information about the data stored about you and have a right to receive a copy of your data. In justified cases, you may also request the deletion or correction of your data or the restriction of processing of your data. You can withdraw your permission to receive e-mails at any time with future effect.

Possibility of appeal

To exercise these rights, please contact our data protection officer DSB@wik.org. The responsible supervisory authority is the LDI (Landesbeauftragter für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit NRW).
